Re: March 11, 2015 Certified Mail Letter of failure to comply with request for information.

Dear Ms. Hriczko:

I have received the referenced letter, and I am writing to inform you that my father Robert O'Donnell, Owner Bob O'Donnell Drums, died on January 14, 2015. He had entered Hospice the day after Thanksgiving, in November of 2014. I am enclosing a copy of the Death Certificate for your records.

Dad was mostly retired from his sole proprietorship for the last few years as his health failed. I wouldn't know where to find any information. I do know he was the only person in the business since around 2012. He brokered reconditioned drums I know, selling to the few customers he had.

Sincerely,

Kevin O'Donnell
